Dublin Community Forum, Block 4, Floor 1 East, Civic Offices, Wood Quay, Dublin 8

The Dublin Community Forum comprises over 700 community groups from all parts of Dublin City including those representing residents, tenants, the arts, the environment, childcare, youth, disability, new communities, diversity, the homeless, and sports & recreation. Membership of the Dublin Community Forum is open to any group, club or organisation that operates on a voluntary, co-operative or not-for-profit basis for the benefit of the community.

Every member group of the Dublin Community Forum can choose to join or set up a particular Focus Group covering their area of interest. Focus Groups are generally involved in initiating and/or organising projects and campaigns and act as sub-committees of the Forum.

As a member of the Dublin Community Forum groups are also eligible to avail of a special group insurance scheme as negotiated by the Irish National Community & Voluntary Forum.

The main aims of the Dublin Community Forum are:

- To provide a platform through which members may explore, articulate and organise to progress issues and interests that are of particular concern to them.
- To represent the Community & Voluntary Sector of Dublin City on city-wide participative structures such as the Dublin City Development Board, Area Committees and Strategic Policy Committees.
- To represent Community & Voluntary input into strategic plans for Dublin City

Some of the Focus Groups presently operating within the Dublin Community Forum are:

- Arts Focus Group
- Childcare Focus Group
- Community Media Forum
- Disability Focus Group
- Dublin Sports & Recreation Council
- Environmental Focus Group
- Homeless Focus Group
- Older Persons Focus Group
- Resident & Tenant Focus Group
- Youth Focus Group
