

Feedback: Talk to Dublin City Forum/Childcare 11/11/08

No of Responses	Feedback	Outcome
1	Request for a way to provide play therapy in areas where parents/carers cannot afford it	I am looking into this. It may take a while but it could be possible. I will speak to the childcare forum. Could the woman who spoke about this at the talk and who gave me the feedback please contact me?
8	Would like: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• More information on play in a longer session</li> <li>• Specific sessions on autism, learning difficulty, ADHD, special needs in general and anger management</li> </ul>	Response via customer website Information provided to the forum
16	Requested more information on training in the field of play therapy: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 1 requested an introductory course</li> <li>• 10 more information on the full training (none of these provided contact details)</li> <li>• 4 DIT students – so perhaps they could be contacted through the college</li> <li>• 3 people provided contact details so they will receive direct information</li> </ul>	With the possible exception of the DIT students, response is through the website. I will respond directly to those who left contacts. Two people specifically asked for training courses in Dublin. I would need more details from them about their existing situation to clarify this. I would like them to contact me please.
1	Requested a reading list	I will put one together and post it to the website as soon as it is ready
1	Requested a directory of play therapists	PlayBody Ireland: The National Association for Play Therapy has names and contact details of play therapists. They can be contacted at playbodyireland@eircom.net or http://www.playbodyireland.ie The list contains contacts in all regions of Ireland
5	Requests related to specific play issues and only 1 gave a contact	I will respond directly to the person who left a contact. I ask the other people who asked about specific child related difficulty to contact me using the details above or in the PowerPoint
